Owner of 35 Dogs to Appeal Seizure

Halifax, NS (December 26 2019) – The owner of 35 dogs and puppies seized from a puppy mill near Wolfville has appealed the seizure to government-appointed Animal Welfare Appeal Board.

Under the new Nova Scotia Animal Protection Act owners can appeal to the Animal Welfare Appeal Board to determine if the seizure was lawful. The hearings are open to the public.

The Animal Welfare Appeal Board will hear the appeal:

Date: December 30

Location: The Futures Inn, 30 Fairfax Dr, Halifax, NS B3S 1P1

Time: 9:30am

At the hearing, the Board will receive evidence in the form of written and / or oral testimony.

Criminal charges can proceed regardless of the appeal board ruling.
