Nova Scotia SPCA Secures Animal and Shelter Services Contract from the Halifax Regional Municipality

Halifax, Nova Scotia – The Nova Scotia SPCA was awarded a three-year contract to provide Animal and Shelter Services to the Halifax Regional Municipality beginning May 1, 2020.

The municipality awarded a three-year contract with the option to renew for an additional two years to the Nova Scotia SPCA. The SPCA is the largest provider of shelter, bylaw, and animal control enforcement in Nova Scotia serving 20 municipalities from Yarmouth to Cape Breton.

“We are pleased to bring the extensive experience of the SPCA to support the Halifax Regional Municipality through the Animal Control and Shelter Services contract,” says Elizabeth Murphy, CEO for the Nova Scotia SPCA. “Hope Swinimer and the team at Homeward Bound City Pound accomplished a fabulous job for the municipality’s animals over the last number of years and I thank them for helping facilitate a smooth transition over to the SPCA’s new HRM Animal Redemption Centre.”

The SPCA will provide services to Halifax through the HRM Animal Redemption Centre beginning on May 1, 2020 at the former Homeward Bound City Pound location. Service to the public will continue without interruption at 201 Brownlow Ave. Please visit <https://www.halifax.ca/home-property/animal-services> or call 311 for more details on animal services in Halifax.

About the Nova Scotia SPCA

Proudly following no-kill principles, the Nova Scotia SPCA is a registered charity that helps companion animals in need. Every year, more than 16,000 pets are helped through animal rescue, progressive programs, and rehoming opportunities. Their shelters do not receive any government funding, so the SPCA relies on community support to help care for local pets in need. To learn more visit www.novascotiaspca.ca
